Christmas Goods Opening Thursday, Nov. 17th.

We are having our opening very early in order to give our many out-of-town customers a chance while the weather is pleasant, to come to Danville, and make their Christmas purchases from the unique line that we show.

We have been gathering this stock from all quarters of the world—Japan, China, France, Germany, England all contribute something towards this stock, and we consider it the best stock we have had in years. There are hundreds of very unique and attractive articles, one of a kind, that cannot be duplicated.

Silverware.

Everything in plated and Sterling Silver for the table, from a salt-spoon to a ten-piece. Prices always on a money-saving basis.

Japanese Wares.

On account of the prominent part the Japs are now taking in the world's work and their great display at the St. Louis Fair, there has arisen an immense demand for Japanese works of art.

Knowing this we have secured a remarkably attractive line of brioches and croissants that are distinctively Japanese. Popular price pieces at 15¢ to 81¢. Also a collection of exquisite specimens of their highest art, works such as Izuon, Satsuma, Imari, Uloissone, Moringi, Bronges, Iveries and silver Cloissons.

All we yourself all day to properly see all of this display and you will not regret the time spent.

HON. J. M. ALVERSON.

According to a fixed custom by which the democratic party induces a faithful officer by nominating him for a second term, it goes without saying that Hon. J. M. Alverson will be nominated to succeed himself as representative of Lincoln county in the next Legislature, for which office he is a candidate, submitting to the action of the party in primary election on Saturday, Dec. 10, 1904.

He was born Nov. 15, 1873, at Sulphur Well, Jessamine county, moved to Richmond, Ky., when only four years of age and his father died one year afterward. In 1889 he entered the Kentucky Register Publishing Co. at Richmond, working for several years—the first year gratis, and the next six months at 75 cents per week. He also worked for the Richmond Citizen Co. and in 1894 he accepted a place with Mr. W. P. Walton, former editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, still holding a high position on that excellent paper. He is a member of the K. O. T. M. and in religious faith a Methodist.

He was democratic election commissioner for Lincoln county for two terms and a member of the Stanford city council for one term, being elected to the Legislature in 1903, where he served on six of the most important committees of the House and had two important laws passed which are now on the statute books and are productive of much good throughout the Commonwealth—the vagrancy law and one imposing a penalty for flourbag pilfering on passenger trains.

He worked constantly for the bill lengthening the common school term to six months, for the school book bill, which gives the children of the State cheaper books, and for several other bills of vital importance to the great common people, to which class he is proud to belong.

While a member of the General Assembly he had six notary publics, five asylum guards, one penitentiary guard and one Jefferson guard appointed.

He sent out more garden seed than any five predecessors, answered every letter promptly and was only absent one day during the session. He promised his mother when a lad, that she would some day see him a member of the Legislature.

In fulfilling that promise he defeated his opponent 915 votes, running ahead of Gov. Beckham in several precincts and carrying all of them to May 1903 he defeated Hon. M. P. North for the nomination, after a heated campaign, carrying nine out of the 12 precincts, going into every nook and corner of the county, working day and night, his election being the result of his astute generalship and indefatigable energy. He is one of the best organizers in the county and is considered one of the broadest politicians in the State, having been a trusted lieutenant of the lamented Goebel.

Having proved his ability to fill important positions of public trust, and having served the party so ably and faithfully, his claims are second to those of no man. If nominated he will be faithful to every trust and guard the interests of the whole people, his experience having qualified him fully for the work.

M. D. HUGHES.

PREACHERSVILLE.

The boys had a gay time in spite of the rain, burning powder in honor of "Teddy." The jar from the big gun stopped the clocks and James Thompson says his well is dry.

A called session of the quarterly meeting for the Preachersville circuit will be held Nov. 26 and 27, at the M. E. church. Bro. Simpson, the presiding elder, will be present from the 23rd until after the Sunday services. Will protract the meeting from these services. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Susie Thompson, of Mt. Vernon, who has been visiting Misses Fannie and Ella Thompson, has returned to her home. J. C. Peoples and family and J. F. Holtzclaw visited at McCrary. Rev. B. C. Norton, of Millersburg, is with the homefolks. Leester Harber leaves for California Monday. Mrs. Wm. Richardson continues very low of typhoid pneumonia.

J. H. Thompson bought of D. M. Anderson four belfers at 2 and 2½. J. P. Rodgers sold to Dr. Taylor, of Somerset, a two-year-old saddle mare for $145. D. P. Thompson raised three pecks of Irish potatoes from two tubers sent him from Colorado by a friend. B. G. Pettie bought of J. H. Miller, some corn at $2.10 in the field. F. F. Cummins has a pumpkin measuring four feet in circumference. Phil Thompson sold 15 barrels of corn to W. H. Cummins at $2. J. F. Holtzclaw has a field of corn growing 5 to 6 bushels per bushel.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe, and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation, all yield to this perfect pill. 25¢ at Peony's drug store.

Reply to Judge Bailey's Card.

In a statement issued to the democratic voters of Lincoln county Judge James P. Bailey says that when he came into office there were outstanding $30,000 worth of Lincoln county bonds, running 30 years, bearing 6 per cent interest, that these bonds were taken up by the court by new bonds, bearing 4 per cent interest, which were sold for a premium of $1,500, making a saving of $20,700 to the county, for which he claims credit for his administration. One half of the sum which he claims was saved, will have to be knocked off to start on for the bonds bear 5 per cent interest and not six per cent. (see fiscal court order book pages 318 and 319.) When the circumstances under which these bonds were issued is recalled, the other half of the saving will have to be knocked off also. It only required a majority vote to free the pikes, but a two-thirds vote to issue the bonds.

The first election on the bond question held in November 1897, failed to carry under the ruling of the court of appeals, then in force voting in the election, as the proposition did not receive two-thirds of all the votes voting in that election. We were in a dilemma which threatened to prove a very serious one.

The turnpikes had been voted free and the people were demanding that the gates be thrown open, but the owners were unwilling to do so unless they were paid for their pikes and there was no way under the circumstances to pay them. There was great trouble over this very question in many counties and we were about to have it here.

At the next term of the fiscal court after the November election, representatives of two bond houses appeared before the fiscal court and agreed to take the bonds provided they were to run 30 years and bear 5 per cent notwithstanding the irregularity of the election, but reserved the right to have their attorney pass on them. The court was in a hole and accepted the proposition and the bonds were knocked off to one of these houses at a premium, they having filed sealed bids. After considerable length of time the bond firm declined to take these bonds and the court was left in the fix it was in at the start.

At this juncture of affairs the officers of the Daviess and Crab Orchard pike agreed if the bonds were issued directly to them they would throw open their gates and hold the bonds until a legal election could be held. Other turnpike companies did the same thing, but the wealthiest roads in the county declined to accept the bonds on the advice of their attorneys, among them the Daviess and Hintonville road, which I represented myself. Everybody knew at the time that the bonds were worthless and that it was just a make-shift to save the county from raids.

The bond election carried in 1898 and then the county sold legal bonds and paid off the worthless ones. An order of the fiscal court entered Nov. 28, 1898, signed by Judge Bailey himself, shows that nearly all the holders of these bonds appeared to open court and surrendered them on account of the irregularity of their issue.

Most anybody who will reflect about the matter will know that if a man had a legal Lincoln county bond running 30 years and bearing 5 per cent that Judge Bailey would deserve great credit if he could get it away from him.

The tax rate for five years of his administration has been at the limit for turnpike purposes—25 cents—1898 25¢, in 1899 25¢, in 1900 25¢, in 1901 25¢ and 25¢ in 1902 and the taxable property in Lincoln county for all purposes is about $6,500,000, making in taxes paid for these five years $1,500, and in addition to this over $14,000 back franchises from the railroads.

Judge Bailey's financial coup reminds me of the visitor from across the seas to Niagara Falls. In travelling around the country he visited this great natural wonder and after being shown about by the guide and viewing it from every standpoint, he said to the guide: "Well, is that all there is of it?" "Why," the guide said, "I guess I have shown all the points of interest." "Well," he said, "I don't see what they are making so much noise about it for and the people coming here from all over the country to see it." The guide was amused at his lack of appreciation and said with an impious exclamation: "Sir don't you see that magnificient body of water tumbling over that mighty precipice?" He said: "I do, but what the devil is there to blunder it from tumbling over?"

The highest rate of taxation was levied for five years—what the devil was Bailey to do with all this money unless he put it on the bonds which the people had 30 years to carry. He has paid off in seven years over $19,000 when this generation and the next one had 30 years to pay it in. Respectfully,

R. C. WARREN.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

TWELVE years ago Benjamin Harrison got 145 electoral votes and the democrats had very nearly a hundred majority in the House of Representatives. But since then, things have changed since Betsy "deceased." Parker has less votes than Harrison had and Congress—well, the republican majority in it will be just what the party desires. At present it is about 100. If it decides all contests in favor of republicans, as it usually does, it will be 200.

AMONG the Chinese Empress' birthday honors is one giving Wu Ting-Fang, formerly minister to Washington, permission to ride on horseback in the Forbidden City. This is a rare privilege.

RETURNS from the Third Congressional district show that Richardson, democrat, is elected over Jones, republican, by 120 votes. Good. We wish the majority was an hundred times as much.

THE Kentucky building at the St. Louis World's Fair, which cost $29,000, has been sold to a Chicago wrecking company for $305, and that's the way the money goes.

PEDIGREE Belgian Hares for sale. Mrs. W. J. Edmiston, Crab Orchard.

MR. P. M. CONDER, who was to have had a sale at Crab Orchard next Tuesday, has postponed it until Jan. 10.

MR. DAVID SCOTT tells us he has voted in 12 presidential elections, casting his first vote for John C. Breckinridge.

The report that Mr. Justus Dunn, of Brodhead, had died suddenly is untrue, we are glad to say. He is in his usual health.

"DUMNY" OWSLEY is in jail charged with attempting to rob Mrs. George Ely. He has been indicted and the chances are that he will be sent "over the road."

ADVERTISING PAYS—A four line advertisement found Dr. O. B. Falls' horse. The animal was down below Danville, but not too far away for the I. J. to reach.

MR. M. F. ELKIN's friends all over the district will learn with regret that he has withdrawn from the race for State Senator. He publishes a card of withdrawal elsewhere.

THE burning of the hand-painted ebony of Miss Sallie Elkin's class is now done here, instead of sending it to the city. She has a kiln at Miss Pearl Burson's and it is very interesting to watch the burning of this beautiful work.

MOST of the candidates for county offices have paid in their entrance fee and the rest will likely do so before night. George T. Wood and Emmett McCormick have combined in the race for assessor. They make a strong team.

WE failed to mention in our last issue that the store of Edmiston Bros., at Crab Orchard, was entered and robbed several nights ago. The financial loss is not great. Milliken's bloodhounds were brought from Wilmore to the scene and they trailed to the Fall Lick section, but no arrests were made. The rain that had recently fallen interfered materially with the dogs in making their trail.

POWELL—Mrs. Viola Powell, wife of James W. Powell, died last night after a brief illness of peritonitis, aged 26. Mrs. Powell was a daughter of Mr. Cornelius Vanoy, and was an excellent young woman. May He who doeth all things well assuage the grief of those who loved her and help the grief-stricken husband and little children to believe that the good wife and tender mother is free from earthly care and pain.

NO GAME.—There will be no game of football here Monday between Nicholasville and Stanford on account of several of the former's players getting hurt in the game with Millenburg. Our boys are very much disappointed over this, for they expected to win the championship of Central Kentucky by defeating them here. Several weeks ago Stanford played Lancaster a tie game on their grounds and they promised them a return game, but they refused to give Stanford satisfaction, saying that all their players were "business men" and could not get off. Stanford was very anxious to play this game, but as Lancaster turned "yellow" there will be no game with them this year.

At the Peyton Hotel, at Mureland, Fred W. Tente, of Mt. Vernon, Ind., was married to Miss Margaret Lee Gadberry, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gadberry, of that place, Rev. Coleman, of Daoville, officiating.

One of the prettiest of the recent social events was the wedding on Wednesday of Miss Grace Holtzclaw, to Mr. Milan Albert Johnson, Rev. O. M. Huey officiating. The charming bride wore a dress of Creme Vulle and white picture hat and carried large white chrysanthemums. Her attendant, Mrs. Annie Holtzclaw, wore a dress of brown and white with brown hat. Mr. G. O. Spoonamore was another attendant, while Misses Elizabeth and Alva Holtzclaw made pretty flower girls, in all-white dresses. The parlor was decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns. A large number of friends and relatives were present at the ceremony and enjoyed the elegant repast of several courses. Miss Holtzclaw is a daughter of Mr. Alexander Holtzclaw and is one of Stanford's prettiest and most lovable girls, while Mr. Johnson is a splendid young business man of Seadrift, Tenn. Their many friends are sincere in wishing them a long and happy married life.

To the Democrats of the Eighteenth Senatorial District of Kentucky.

Greeting:—It is with deep regret that at the last moment I am compelled to withdraw my candidacy now before you in the democratic primary to be held in the above district on the 3d day of December, 1904, for the State, Senate Constituency now existing, for which I am not responsible, and over which I have no control, prevent me from making the canvass that should be made, are the reasons I have to assign for this step.

To my many warm, personal friends, who have pledged me their hearty support in the contest, I tender my heartfelt thanks and assure them that it is with reluctance that I relinquish one of the greatest ambitions of my life, namely, to represent my home district in the State Senate of Kentucky, for I feel confident I could have won the nomination could I have continued in the race. During my preliminary canvass I have received hundreds of assurances and pledges of personal support; my friends have advised me to keep it up, assuring me that success would attend my efforts. For all this I am deeply grateful and now extend to them my sincere thanks for their kind expressions concerning me.

With this announcement, I retire from the race and am no longer a candidate before you.

Yours for Democracy,

M. F. ELKIN.

IT has come to our ears that Rev. J. B.
